THE REALTOR® ASSOCIATION OF GREATER FORT LAUDERDALE NAMES TARA JORDAN AS MEMBER RELATIONS MANAGER

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. - (March 13, 2009) – The REALTOR® Association of Greater Fort Lauderdale, Inc. (RAGFL) is pleased to announce the appointment of Tara Jordan as its manager for member relations. In her new position, Jordan is charged with serving as a key liaison between the Association and the membership, strengthening relationships with current members, attracting new REALTOR® and affiliate members and organizing the Association's business networking functions.

"Tara's dynamic experience in the real estate and mortgage industries coupled with her proactive, 'keep winning' attitude are ideal for our organization," stated Chief Executive Officer, Richard Barkett. "We are eager for Tara to hit the road and promote RAGFL's valuable tools, resources and services to current and future members."

Jordan most previously served as the mortgage advisor for Coldwell Banker's East Palm Beach County offices. Working with agents across four offices, she originated home mortgages and communicated current mortgage updates and news. With a Texas mortgage broker's license, Jordan has also managed a mortgage brokerage firm in Arlington Texas as well as started a national reverse mortgage division. She was also active in the Greater Fort Worth Builders Association where she served on the lobbying committee and as 2006-07 chair of the membership committee.

A Texas native, Jordan is a graduate of Texas Christian University with a major in finance and a minor in music. Jordan, who lives in downtown Fort Lauderdale with her fiancé and three children, enjoys spending her personal time traveling, singing and practicing yoga.

The REALTOR® Association of Greater Fort Lauderdale, Inc. is one of the largest REALTOR® Associations in Florida, representing more than 8,000 real estate professionals in Broward, Dade and Palm Beach Counties. More information can be found at www.R-World.com.
