FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

REALTORS® TO AID HOMELESS WITH CHARITABLE HOLIDAY PARTY
Toys and Donations from Holiday Open House to Benefit Broward Partnership for the Homeless, via the RAGFL Charitable Foundation

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. - (December 3, 2007) – REALTORS® spend most of their time helping homebuyers, but on Wednesday, December 5 from 5 – 8 p.m., they'll be helping the homeless. The REALTOR® Association of Greater Fort Lauderdale (RAGFL) and The Attorney's Title Insurance Fund are teaming up to host a holiday party in which each guest's $10 cash or new toy donation will go to the RAGFL Charitable Foundation, which then will donate the money and toys to the Broward Partnership for the Homeless.

"We wanted to take a step back from all the talk about property tax and home value and really to focus on helping others," explained Rick Barkett, CEO of RAGFL. "It's easy to lose perspective when prices fluctuate or a new bill is introduced, but the fact remains that many can't even dream of owning a home. They need our attention, especially at this time of year."

The REALTOR®/Lawyer open house is open to the public and will feature hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and live entertainment. It will be held at the RAGFL East Auditorium, located at 1765 N.E. 26th St. in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
