

CHRISTINE E. HANSEN, CRB, GRI
Broker, Past-President, REALTOR® Association of Greater Fort Lauderdale, Inc.
2009 District XI Vice President, Florida Association of REALTORS®

Christine E. Hansen, CRB, GRI, of Century 21 Hansen Realty, Inc. in Fort Lauderdale, currently serves as the 2009 District XI Vice President, Florida Association of REALTORS®. She previously held the position of 2007 President of the REALTOR® Association of Greater Fort Lauderdale (RAGFL). In her role as President of one of the nation's largest REALTOR® Associations with over 12,000 members, Christine was charged with advancing the organization's mission to provide products, programs and services that best enhanced industry professionalism and profitability.

A full-time Broker with more than 24 years of real estate experience, Christine owns Century 21 Hansen Realty, Inc. - a full-service real estate brokerage with three locations serving South Florida. Her extensive service to the RAGFL Board includes nine years as a member of the RAGFL Honor Society, terms as Vice President, Treasurer, as well as Chair of many committees and task forces including: Audit & Finance, Leadership Development Program, Grievance and awards.

Christine's involvement at the state level has been no less impressive. A member of the Florida Association of REALTORS® (FAR) Honor Society for eight years and an FAR Director since 2003, Christine has also been a member of numerous committees including: Finance, REALTOR® Institute Sub-Committee, Business Issues Sub-Committee, Professional Standards Forum, Professional Development and Strategic Planning. In 2007, she served as Vice Chair of the REALTOR® Institute Sub-Committee.

At the national level, in addition to serving as a Director for the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) since 2005, Christine is a current and past member of key committees including Professional Standards and the Directors Forum. As well as holding two professional REALTOR® designations – CRB and GRI, Christine is an active and proud member of the Women's Council of REALTORS® (WCR).

After her time as President was served, Christine remained equally involved at the local, state and national levels. Having recently gone through NAR's mediation training in Chicago. In 2008, she played a key role in bringing the mediation process to local and state associations.

As a strong believer in giving back to the community, Christine has been involved with many organizations including: Henderson Mental Health Holiday Toys for Children program, the Easter Seals, the American Cancer Society, Kids in Distress and Challenge Air, to name a few.

A Broward County resident since the age of two, Christine currently resides in Lighthouse Point, Florida. Her passion for scuba diving, however, continues to take her to exotic locations around the world.
