

Lori Parrish
Broward County Property Appraiser

Lori's experience in public service began in 1984 when she was elected to a four-year term on the Broward County School Board. In 1988, she was elected to the Broward County Commission, where she served as Vice Chair in 1989 and 1996 and Chair in 1990, 1997 and 2001. She was re-elected multiple times without opposition. In 2004, Lori left the County Commission to run for Broward County Property Appraiser.

Running on a promise to ensure a fair shake for all taxpayers, Lori was elected with an impressive 61% of the vote and was re-elected almost unanimously again in November 2008. Learn more at www.bcpa.net.
